

Nineteenth-Century English Political Cartoons
Finding Aid for Collection 812 R

Special Collections
Haverford College Library

*Cartoons are arranged in alphabetical order by title in Folder, within the following two categories.

Published for the proprietors of Town Talk

“A Buckinghamshire Breeze - or an East Indiaman in Danger”.
March 1, 1813. 32 x 44 cm.

“Deerhurst’s Defeat of the End of Unqualified [sic] Ambition”.
November 1, 1812. 34 x 42 cm.

“The Genius of the Times”. December 1, 1812. 33 x 41 cm.

“Josephs Flight”. October 1, 1812. 33 x 42 cm.

“Manchester Square Cattle Shew”. May 1, 1812. 30 x 43 cm.

“Ministerial Races”. July 1, 1812. 34 x 40 cm.

“National Pursuits”. April 1, 1812. 32 x 45 cm.

“The Opening of Pandora’s Box”. September 1, 1812. 30 x 42 cm.

“The Shield of Law. or the Modern Quixote”. February 1, 1823. 33 x 43 cm.

“The Spirit of the Book - or Anticipation of the Year 1813”. Jan 1, 1813. 33 x 42 cm.

“Worse and Worse or the Sports of the 19th Century”. June 1, 1812. 32 x 43 cm.

Other

H. Heath. “The Great General frightened by Don Key”. 1830. 28 x 42 cm.

“The Kentish Lottery - or a New way to pay old Debts”. July, 1819. Published by J.
Jonstone Chopside. 32 x 42 cm.

11/19/2010

[Illegible]. "Preparing the Witnesses - a View in Cotton garden". August, 1820.
Published by J. Dolby. 33 x 42 cm.

"The Wrymouth Candidates or the Strangers at Home". [n.d.]. 2 copies. 32 x 42 cm.