

Haverford College Library
Special Collections

Finding Aid for the MITCHELL FAMILY LETTERS,
1830-1911

Collection No. 959
1 document box (.5 linear feet; ca. 150 items)
©December 2008

Gift of Blanche Holmes, 1937

RESTRICTIONS

No restrictions

ABSTRACT

The papers of the Mitchell family, Quakers in 19th century Philadelphia.

SUBJECT HEADINGS

Mitchell family

Business – Religious aspects – Society of Friends

SCOPE AND CONTENTS OF THE COLLECTION

Miscellaneous letters, invitations and other papers, reflecting the social and cultural life of members of a prominent Philadelphia Quaker family, interested in commercial affairs. These also throw light on the economic and business conditions, travel facilities, political questions and religious trends of the period.