

Preliminary Program

8:30 a.m. Registration, Coffee, and Focus Group Tables

9:00 a.m. Welcome Remarks
Thomas Tritton, President of Haverford College

Introduction
Christopher Densmore, Curator, Friends Historical Library, Swarthmore College

9:10 a.m. Keynote Address: "Your Quaker School and History"
William Kasbatus, formerly of Chester County Historical Society and author of "Abington Friends School: The Early Years, 1697-1800" and "Trees into Shields: A History of Frankford Friends School"

10:00 a.m. Panel: "Steps Along the Way"
Representatives of several Friends Schools will discuss the archival programs at their own schools.

11:00 a.m. Panel: "Archives and Curriculum: Possibilities and Limitations"
Mary Brooks, Westtown School
Wendy Chmielewski, Peace Collection, Swarthmore College

12:00 p.m. Lunch
Dress comfortably to take advantage of Haverford's beautiful nature trail, and enjoy good food with old and new friends.

1:30 p.m. Centering and deep breathing exercises

1:45 p.m. Panel: "The Nitty Gritty: Arranging, Indexing, and Care of Materials: Where to Buy Supplies, How to Fund This Endeavor, and More..."
Bruce Bumbarger, Haverford College Library
Christopher Densmore, Friends Historical Library, Swarthmore College
Patricia O'Donnell, Friends Historical Library, Swarthmore College
Diana Franzusoff Peterson, Special Collections, Haverford College
Diane Wallace, Pennsylvania Museum and Historical Commission

2:40 p.m. Archives Come to Life: "A Clear Leading"
Rich Swingle portrays John Woolman.

3:30 p.m. "What Next?!"
Emma Lapsansky-Werner, Curator, Haverford College Quaker Collection and Professor of History