

Presents:

The Fourth Annual Public Forum on Critical Thinking in Education

The Import of Gender for Critical Thinking: A Dialogue

Saturday, March 28, 1998 - 10:00 - 5:00 p.m.
Haverford College - Sharpless Auditorium

Presenters

Professor Karren Warren, (Chair, Philosophy, Macalester College)
"Rewriting the Future: Gender and Critical Thinking" - 10:00 a.m.

Dr. Jody C. Cohen, (Director, Research for Action)
"Critical Literacy and School Reform: Working to Succeed in School"

Ashok Gangadean, (Philosophy Haverford) Chair and Moderator

Lunch Break: 12:00 p.m. to 1:00 p.m.

Open Dialogue: 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.
Christine Koggel, Respondent (Philosophy, Bryn Mawr College)
"Critical Questions for Opening Dialogue"

Reception: 3:00 p.m. in the Gest Center (2nd floor Lounge)

Workshop: 3:30 - 5:00 p.m. in Gest 101
"Why Should Educators Care About Gender Issues?"
conducted by Dr. Yun Ja Lassek, Philosophy of Education,

For information contact:

Ashok Gangadean (610) 896-1031 gangade@haverford.edu (Program Chair)
Michele Simon (Publicity) (610) 525-1445
Dr. Yun Ja Lassek (Workshop Chair) (610) 527-7928

CERTIFICATE OF ATTENDANCE PROVIDED FOR PARTICIPATING TEACHERS