

Saleha Jilani

Department of Economics
Haverford College
370 W. Lancaster Avenue
Haverford, PA 19041

Phone: (610) 896-4974
Fax: (61) 896-1041
email: sjilani@haverford.edu

Personal

Dual Citizenship: U.S.A., Pakistan

Research and Teaching Interests

International Trade, Economic Development, Applied Microeconomics.

Current Position

Assistant Professor of Economics, Haverford College, 1999–present.

Past Positions

Visiting Asst. Professor of Economics, Haverford College, 1995–1999.

Assistant Professor of Economics, College of William and Mary, 1992–1995.

Summer Intern, Statistics Department, IMF, 6/90–9/90.

Summer Research Assistant, National Development Finance Corporation,
Karachi, Pakistan, 6/85–9/85.

Professional Affiliations

- American Economic Association
- Visiting Scholar, South Asia Center, University of Pennsylvania, 2006–present.

Education

Johns Hopkins University, Department of Economics, Ph.D., 1993.

Swarthmore College, B.A. in Economics (with high honors), 1987.
Phi Beta Kappa (1987).

Selected Grants, Fellowships, and Awards

- Faculty Research Fund, Haverford College, 2007.
- Faculty Support Fund, Haverford College, 2000.
- Summer Research Grant, College of William and Mary, 1994.
- Dept. of Economics Fellowship, Johns Hopkins University, 1987–1988.
- Lang Graduate Incentive Fellowship, Swarthmore College, 1987–1988.
- Margaret Moore Scholarship, Swarthmore College, 1983–1987.

Publications

- “Commercial and Tax Policy with Endogenous Capital Flows: A Welfare Analysis,” The Journal of International Trade and Economic Development, 2, November 1993, 93-123.

Working Papers

- “Capital Mobility and Interdependency: Cross–Country Welfare Effects of Commercial Policy and Growth,” under revision for publication.
- “What Does European Institutional Integration Tell Us About FDI and Trade Integration?”
- “Regional Integration Schemes and Patterns of Foreign Direct Investment: 1980–2000.”
- “Collective Action and Coordination: Classroom Exercises in the Economic Behavior of Groups.”
- “Equilibrium and Efficiency: Classroom Exercises in Coordination and Collective Action,” with Richard Ball.
- “Optimal Foreign Investments and Price-Output Responses,” mimeo, College of William and Mary, 1994.
- “Construction of a Trade-Weighted Rupee Index Under the Generalized Floating System and its Interpretation,” with M. Ahmed, Working Paper, National Development Finance Corporation, Karachi, Pakistan, 1985.

Refereeing

Economica, The Journal of Economic Education, Journal of International Trade and Economic Development.

Languages

Fluent in Urdu; working knowledge in Spanish.