

The following persons may have courtesy borrowing privileges at Haverford, Bryn Mawr, and Swarthmore Colleges upon presentation of the appropriate documentation:

- Faculty/staff partners and children associated with any of the three colleges.
- Faculty affiliated with E-ZBorrow Libraries. Ask at your institutional Library to obtain introduction papers needed for establishing borrowing privileges.

The following persons may have courtesy borrowing privileges at Haverford Libraries (not Bryn Mawr and Swarthmore) upon presentation of the appropriate documentation. A courtesy borrower card will be issued by a full-time Circulation Services Staff member in Magill Library.

- Haverford Board of Managers and Members of the Corporation must present picture ID, e.g. a valid driver's license.
- Faculty from local area schools and colleges must present a letter of introduction from the library, provost or department chair of their institution.
- Religious leaders in the community must present a letter of introduction from the administration of their religious organization.