Peer Tutor
Office of Academic Resources, Haverford College

At Haverford College, peer tutoring is an integral component of the OAR’s commitment to providing academic resources and support to all Haverford students. In the last two years the demand for tutors has increased dramatically. During the 2013-2014 academic year, nearly 90 peer tutors provided more than 1,500 hours of one-on-one tutoring. The OAR is hiring tutors for Arabic, Astronomy, Biology, Chemistry, Chinese, Computer Science, Economics, French, German, Greek, Hebrew, Italian, Japanese, Latin, Linguistics, Math, Music, Physics, Psychology & Spanish.

Responsibilities:
- Peer tutors play an essential role in the larger educational enterprise. Peer tutors work one-to-one with their fellow Fords in helping them
  - discuss new information and concepts they are learning,
  - review material they already know,
  - refresh their mastery of material they have forgotten,
  - prepare for an exam or presentation, and/or
  - receive academic assistance beyond the help provided by the course faculty, TAs, or academic review centers.
- There is no minimum hours commitment. Peer tutors availability is entirely at their discretion.
- Peer tutors must commit to attending the Peer Tutor/TA Training in September and attend a monthly training/feedback session throughout the fall and spring semesters.

Qualifications:
- Excellent communication skills and ability to work with students from diverse backgrounds.
- Demonstrated a mastery of the subject matter they wish to tutor; can empathize with the common challenges of the content and articulate appropriate methods to overcome those challenges.

Compensation:
- Payment is monthly
- Peer tutors start at $9/hour. With each successive year as a peer tutor, pay increases $0.25/hour, up to $9.75/hour.

Application Instructions:
- Complete an online application form at https://www.haverford.edu/academic-resources/peer-tutoring
- Be available for an in person interview upon request

Application Deadline:
- Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis; however, applications successfully submitted by December 1 will be given priority.

If you have any questions please contact hc-peerinstruction@haverford.edu